

President Again Discusses Peace Situation

Human Fly to Climb Two Local Buildings

JACK WILLIAMS,
NOTED DARE DEVIL
WILL HELP BOOST
THE TOBACCO FUND

COMES TO THE TWIN CITIES UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE DAILY TO GIVE MARVELOUS EXHIBITION.

HAS BROTHERS IN FRANCE

SUPERHUMAN WALL SCALER
STOPS AT NOTHING. WOOL-WORTH BUILDING IS AMONG THOSE THAT HE HAS ALREADY CLIMBED.

Jack Williams, otherwise the Human Fly, who gains the latter title from the fact that he climbs up the sides of tall buildings much like the well-known suction-footed fly, will climb up the outside of the Mattocks building on Second avenue tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, and the Hotel Lyons on Bank street tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, rain or shine. Mr. Murray, manager of the daring young climber, is in the city making arrangements for the exhibition and through a special arrangement with the Daily Mr. Williams is to climb and take up a collection and donate thirty per cent to the Morgan County Boys' Tobacco Fund. He has been performing for this purpose for nearly three months and it is estimated that he has given over $5,000 to this fund. He has two brothers now in service, both of whom are in France and on account of their writing to him for cigarettes he has devoted his time to the getting of funds for this cause.

He will be remembered as the man who on May 11, 1917, climbed from the sidewalk to the top of the Woolworth building in New York City, using nothing but his hands and feet to make the climb. The building is the tallest in the world and is 55 stories, over 700 feet, in height.

Some of the southern dailies, where the daring young fellow has been performing, describe him as being almost supernatural and a great deal is said about his hands. He can hold a raw potato in his hand and squeeze it to a pulp. He can support his entire weight with one finger. The slightest indentation furnishes him with plenty of hand-hold. He will climb here, rain or shine, and everyone should come out to see him. He is the only and original Human Fly.

Enormous Crowd Expected.

The visit of the human fly to the Twin Cities is expected to bring out a record-breaking crowd. Mr. Williams has recently given these exhibitions at Gadsden, Tuscaloosa and Talladega, at all of which places his audiences numbered thousands. While there is no building here of sufficient height to tax his ability, there is considerable danger attached to the climbing of a wall only 4 stories in height, as a false move would mean the sudden death of the dare devil.

How He Learned It.

The Williams manager this morning, to gratify the curiosity of the Daily, told how Mr. Williams happened to get into a line of business that was something new under the sun. "It was at Detroit," he said, "that a building caught on fire and an aged woman was seen leaning from a high-up window and appealing for aid. Mr. Williams climbed to her assistance and brought her safely down. A bystander remarked, 'that fellow isn't a man, he is a human fly.' The words were a suggestion that was afterwards developed, until today Mr. Williams can climb any building in the world."

Gives Two Climbs.

The two buildings which Mr. Williams will climb are the Mattocks building, 622 Second avenue, and the Lyons Hotel. He will make the Decatur climb at 4 o'clock in the afternoon and the Albany climb at 7:30 (Continued on Page Two.)

Russia Plans to Demobilize Army

Trotsky Says, However, That Peace Agreement Won't be Signed

(International News Service.)
London, Feb. 11.—Russia will demobilize her army and cease all war preparations against the allies, according to a dispatch from Brest-Litovsk today which quoted Leon Trotsky as authority for the statement. On account of the divergence in the Russian terms and those of the central empires, the Bolshevik envoys will refuse to sign any formal treaty, however, Trotsky was further reported as saying.

TERMS OF UKRAINIAN PEACE PACT.
(International News Service.)
Amsterdam, Feb. 11.—The treaty of peace affected by Ukrania and the central powers provides that the frontier between Ukrania and Austria shall remain as it was before the war, said a dispatch from Vienna today. Other terms of the pact follow: 1—establishment of economic relations; 2—territorial adjustments will be made later; 3—the Polish-Ukrania border to be defined at a later date; 4—ratification of the treaty to be followed by evacuation of the territories involved.

PARENTS HERE EAGERLY AWAIT NEWS OF THE FATE OF SON WHO WAS ON THE TUSCANIA

The stealthy German submarine which in the dark of night fired the torpedo that sent the liner Tuscania to the bottom, brought deep personal sorrow to one Twin City home. On board the ill-fated vessel was Jesse T. Plunket, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Plunket, 1319 Fourth avenue, south. Young Plunket was with the First battalion, 32nd division, 104th Michigan regiment, which has been reported as one of the contingents on board the transport.

Whether Jesse Plunket is alive or dead is not yet known. In the meantime, his aged mother here is on the verge of collapse from the suspense. His father is anxiously scanning every list of survivors, in the hope that he may find his son's name among those that are reported as saved.

It was with trembling voice and tear-dimmed eyes, that the father of the young soldier came to the Daily office Sunday evening to inquire if any supplemental list of the survivors had been obtained. He had looked over the lists in the Sunday morning dailies, only to have his hopes dashed to the ground again. His only consolation so far is that his son has not been reported among the dead.

Until the cable completes its story of the great tragedy of the sea that has brought the war so close home to the United States, anxiety will reign in this Albany home. After that, it will be deepest gloom or supreme rejoicing.

Home Guards Attention!

You are hereby commanded to be at the Armory tomorrow (Tuesday) night at 7:30 o'clock in uniform.
B. L. MALONE, Major.

Thursday Last Day Income Tax Men at Court House

Thursday of this week will end the stay of the income tax men at the court house. The two representatives of the internal revenue department, Dr. James and K. B. Phagan, are now working day and night. During the day time they are at the court house, at night they are at the Hotel Hilda. They are collecting some $1,000 a day now for Uncle Sam.

TWO BIG TRACTS OF LAND PURCHASED BY BOND BROTHERS; OPEN OFFICES HERE

Bond Brothers, of Elizabethtown, Ky., have purchased two fine tracts of hardwood timber, near the Twin Cities.

The price paid is not given out, but it is known that a large sum was paid for the two tracts, which aggregate about 6,750 acres.

Bond Brothers, one of the strongest timber concerns in the South, with about 25 mills in operation, have leased an office on Johnston street from C. E. Malone and will make headquarters here for several years, during their Alabama operations. Clarence Bond, son of the president of the company, will be secretary-treasurer at this office.

One of the tracts purchased is the timber rights on the Garth old homestead, 1,543 acres, on the Danville road, one mile west of Austinville, now known as the Garth-Michie tract, and was purchased from Col. W. F. Garth, of Huntsville, and Capt. Henry Clay Michie, of Charlottesville, Va. Work of cutting the timber has already been begun, and two mills are to be in operation on this tract within the next 30 days.

The other tract purchased by Bond Brothers is the Dancy plantation of 5,212 acres in fee simple. This is a rich river plantation, and is one of the finest large bodies of land in the Tennessee river valley. It has a water frontage of more than five miles, beginning four miles up the river from the Twin Cities. About one-third of this tract is first bottom land. The other two-thirds is second bottom or cotton land. This tract was purchased from the owners, Misses Mary Lou and Unity D. Dancy, who reside in a beautiful residence on the plantation. It is not yet known where the Misses Dancy will reside after giving possession May 1, of the place sold. It is hoped they will decide to make the Twin Cities their home instead of going to New York, as it has been stated they may decide to do.

The sale of these two tracts to Bond Brothers was negotiated by T. L. Baker, the farm and timber land specialist, who, besides being a practical farmer, is an expert timber estimator. Having for several years made a study of the timber resources of this part of the country, he is able to talk "timber on the stump" in a way to interest intelligent timber people. Mr. Baker made a trip to Kentucky in person some weeks ago and put the Garth-Michie and Dancy propositions up to O. S. Bond, the president of the company, and induced him to come and make these purchases and operate from Albany-Decatur.

PRICE IS RELEASED; PARENTS OF BOY AGREE TO ARBITRATE

Acting under the advice of his attorney, W. W. Callahan, Sheriff F. E. Price, who shot and seriously wounded Almon Wilkerson, partially deaf, from custody. Price had voluntarily surrendered, and no charges had been preferred against him.

Indications today were that Price would not be prosecuted, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wilkerson, parents of the boy who was shot, came to the court house and agreed to compromise the case. Mr. Price assented. Each side was allowed to name an arbitrator, and in the event these two cannot agree a third man is to be called in. Mr. Price named A. G. Patterson as his representative, while Mr. Wilkerson named S. H. Bradley, of Austinville. An effort will be made to have the arbitrators hold their first meeting this afternoon.

Almon Wilkerson, who was removed to Benevolent Hospital Saturday afternoon, is resting well today and his recovery is expected. His left arm was amputated above the elbow.

PRAISES AUSTRIAN ATTITUDE, FLAYS THAT OF GERMANY

War Must Go On Because of Hun Thirst For Mastery

ADDRESSES JOINT SESSION OF CONGRESS

Executive Appeared on Short Notice Before the Two Houses

(International News Service.)
Washington, Feb. 11.—Holding in his hand an olive branch for Austria, but emphatically reiterating that the United States "will not turn back, but will put its whole strength into a war for emancipation from the threats and attempted mastery of selfish groups of autocratic rulers," President Wilson answered in plain, terse words, the latest peace terms of Austria and Germany as uttered by Count Czernin and Count Von Hertling.

Count Von Hertling, he declared, would return to the methods of the Congress of Vienna and secure peace by individual barter and concessions. To that the United States never will consent, the president insisted. "Is it possible that Count Von Hertling does see that the peace of the world is at stake?" the president asked.

He demanded why the Reichstag resolutions of July 19 which declared for peace without annexations or indemnities, had been ignored by the German chancellor.

The president declared that nothing settled by military force but that would have to be re-opened later.

Directly in contrast to this sharp criticism of the German attitude, was the president's reference to the Austrian position. "The Austrian reply is uttered in a very friendly tone," said the president.

The president again makes it very plain that the United States has no desire to interfere in the internal affairs of Europe. He declared that those principles which the United States has declared are fundamental to peace "are already everywhere recognized as imperative except among the militarists and annexationists in Germany."

The president threw open the gate to Austria in the event that nation should care to begin separate peace negotiations with the allies.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Feb. 11.—Official cognizance was taken today by President Wilson of the official attitude of Austria and Germany towards peace and the war aims of the United States as enunciated by the chief executive on January 6. Once more the president appeared unheralded before a joint session of congress and discussed the recent addresses of Count Czernin, the Austrian foreign minister, and Count Von Hertling, the German chancellor.

(International News Service.)
Washington, Feb. 11.—There can be no peace based upon the conditions outlined by Count Von Hertling, the German chancellor, in his recent address to the Reichstag committee, President Wilson today told a joint session of congress.

The president reiterated in the strongest language that the German position makes for the continuation of the war.

The Austro-Hungarian attitude is directly opposite that of Germany, the president declared, and he praised the address of Count Czernin, but made plain that German control and dominance of Austria has prevented Austria from being as frank as it must be.

Once again the president declared that there was to be no going back and that the whole strength of the United States is to be devoted to "emancipation of peoples from the threats and attempted mastery of selfish groups of autocratic rulers."

Once again, the president summed up three tests which Germany and Austria must meet to have peace, as follows: That each part of the final settlement must be based upon the essential justice of that particular case and upon such adjustments as are likely to bring permanent peace; that the peoples in provinces are not to be bartered from sovereignty; but that every territorial settlement involved in this war must be in the interest and for the benefit of the peoples concerned; that all well defined national aspirations shall be accorded the utmost satisfaction possible, without introducing new or perpetuating elements of discord.

LIST OF MISSING ROUMANIA TOLD ON BOARD TUSCANIA MUST MAKE PEACE NOT YET COMPLETE OR DRIVE STARTED

(International News Service.)
Washington, Feb. 11.—The war department today was making an earnest effort to clear up definitely the list of missing on the torpedoed Tuscania.

The figures still stood at 113, but there was a strong possibility that this would be changed when the list was complete. When the committee on public information resumed its work today of totalling the list of survivors, it had made public 1832 names, leaving, according to its figures, 345 to come. However, in the list made public there are 37 not contained on the official passenger list of the transport and it may take two or three days to clear this up. It is expected that the list of the identified dead will be sent forward by the American commander in the near future.

FOUR AMERICANS ARE KILLED WHEN GERMANS ATTACK WITHOUT NOTICE

ANOTHER SUCUMB TO WOUNDS AND FOUR ARE CARRIED AWAY AS PRISONERS.

THEY ALL FOUGHT BRAVELY

AMERICAN TROOPS ON FRENCH FRONT ARE NOW UNDER COMMAND OF AN AMERICAN GENERAL.

(International News Service.)

With the American Army in France, Feb. 11.—An official report of action between an American and a large German force which occurred in No Man's Land, that all of the Americans bravely to the finish and continuing fire at the retreating Germans withstanding the fact that they pined against odds and at the advantage of having been surprised. Four Americans were killed another died from his wounds, other was wounded and four captured.

The Germans opened the fighting "Kamarad," and by the throwing of grenades. Both sides opened fire and the fighting lasted about a minute and a half, rounding up four men, the Germans withdrew leaving four dead Americans, two wounded Americans, four uninjured doughboys on the field. A second American patrol quickly sent out and discovered five dead bodies. One very much American soldier was lying besides corpses ready to fight if the man came back. There was considerable artillery activity on Saturday night when one American was killed and five injured. The sector western front held by the Americans is now under the command of an American general.

SHIPPING APPEAL
SHIPYARD WORKERS.

of the strongest appeals that have been made to the skilled men of America comes from the Shipping Industry. Twice during the past week
this paper has published communications setting forth the urgent need for men to work in the shipyards and help to carry to successful completion the great ship building program that has been laid out.
It is patent to every intelligent observer that what America needs most is the message that General Dodge has called home to his men. And bridged it must be the great republic is to win the war for itself and its allies. With England almost on the verge of starvation, with Italy hampered
in its operations for lack of coal,
our own great army to be transported abroad and maintained after a vast tonnage must be sent and that quickly in order to millions of lives and hasten the day of peace.

Many of the U-boats have sent more than 1,000 British vessels to the bottom. They have also wrought havoc on the shipping of France and England, and even with that of neutral countries. This deficiency in tonnage not only has been made up, but the merchant marine built to meet the demands incident to the war of the United States into the

of the railroad congestion of the month has been due to the enormous quantities of war material and supplies have been hurried to the seaboard, that to be held in an innumerable time behind of shipping. Freight cars badly needed have stood for days on the tracks, and at times
could not be unloaded.
Conditions must be remedied
in any way that it can be done.
Selling boats. Skilled artisans are needed to build the ships.
The call is one that should be patriotic men everywhere.

MORGAN COUNTY BOYS' TOBACCO FUND.

Morgan County Boys' Tobacco
Fund after starting off auspiciously, lagged. For ten days not a cent has been contributed. For this reason the Daily is especially well at its success in inducing the boys to come here for a brief morning evening, when he will show local buildings, the most valuable structures available in the county, donating 30 per cent of the collection which he will take up to tobacco fund. The "fly" is at making a tour of Alabama, everywhere has been greeted by crowds. He is regarded as one of the marvels of the age, a dare devil wall, who climbs the tallest re in the world with the same ease as he does those that only today stories high. The visit of Jack Williams to the Twin will serve a double purpose—
enable local folk to witness usual exhibition and at the time help swell a fund that is only for the benefit of the county boys who are now enduring the hardships of military life in the defense of their country.

AVIATOR MORRIS,
WELL KNOWN HERE,
BURNED TO DEATH

WAS COUSIN OF W. GRAVES PETTY
OF ALBANY. FATHER BUILT STREETS.

Thomas E. Morris, Jr., the civilian aviator who was burned to death at Lake Charles, La., was a cousin of W.
Graves Petty, of the Home Steam Laundry here, and was well known in this city. His father, a concrete contractor, built many of the streets of East Albany.

The following account of the tragedy is re-published from the Birmingham Age-Herald:

Thomas E. Morris, Jr., one of the best known young men of Birmingham, was burned to death yesterday
at Lake Charles, La., when the house in which he was sleeping was destroyed by fire. Mr. Morris was civilian aviator instructor at the Garstner field aviation camp.

His father, Thomas E. Morris, 1815
Cottonwood avenue, south, West End, was notified of the tragedy yesterday
by the commander of the field, who told him that disposition should be made of the body. The remains will be brought to Birmingham for burial, but the funeral arrangements had not been decided upon last night.

Mr. Morris was probably as widely known as any young man in Birmingham. During recent years he had been prominently identified with the automobile industry here, part of the time as owner of the Morris Auto and Tire Company and part of the time
as a member of the firm of Morris, Westall Motor Company.

Last summer he decided that he wanted to go into aviation and went to Dayton, O., where he took a thorough course in training as a civilian aviator. After he had mastered the details of the art he became a civilian instructor in the army and at the time of his death was stationed at Lake Charles.

He was in Birmingham just before Christmas, where he stopped off for a few hours only on his way to his new duties in Louisiana.
Intimate friends of Morris recalled
last night that although he was devoted to aviation and believed he could do anything in this line, he was not feeling that he would sacrifice his life. But at the same time he thought his skill and experience with automobiles and motors, made this the best branch of the service for him to take up.

When he was here his friends remarked on how fine he was looking and all felt that the new life was agreeing with him and that he would make a great name for himself as a flier.

He was 28 years old.
The following dispatch regarding his death was received over the Associated Press wires:

"Lake Charles, La., Feb. 10.—Thos.
E. Morris, Jr., of Birmingham, a civilian instructor at the Garstner field aviation camp, was burned to death early today when the house in which he was sleeping was destroyed by fire. An overturned oil stove caused the fire, it was believed."

Funeral services for the dead aviator will be conducted tomorrow at Birmingham.

DEATH.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hodgins and son, Alfred, left last night for Uniontown, Ky., in response to a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Helen Hodgins, mother of Mr. Hodgins which occurred on Sunday at St. Louis, Mo.
Deceased during her visits here made many friends who will be pained to learn of her death. The remains were taken to Kentucky where they will be interred at her old home. She is survived by the following sons and daughters: A. D. Hodgins of this city; Berry, Edward and Sim, of St.
Louis; Mrs. Ada Brown, of Douglas, Ariz., and Mrs. Beulah Mason, of Kentucky.

DALLAS MARTIN
NOW A CORPORAL

SOLDIER BOY IN FRANCE PRO-
NOTED. BUYS SIX LIBERTY
BONDS.

Dallas Martin, a local boy now with the American expeditionary forces in France, has been promoted to corporal. He mentions this fact in a letter to his grandmother here, which is as follows:

Somewhere in France, Jan. 12, '18.
Dear Granny and All:

A few lines in answer to your letter
that was received today, dated Dec. 9. Was so glad to hear from you all. I want to thank you for the papers and Dad for the Bible. They certainly were appreciated. I will carry the Bible in my pocket when on the move. I haven't heard from Lacy and Raymond in a great while.
Tell them to write to me. Believe me, I am glad to hear from any one.
Tell papa and mamma I will write them soon. Tell them I love them as well as I ever did. I forgot to thank you for the handkerchief I received today. It came in good time; the one I have in my pocket needs washing.
We have been having some real bad weather. It is either rain or snow every day. The ground is so slick one can hardly walk. I am looking forward to good old summer time. I am in fine health and feeling fine.

I have bought six Liberty bonds.
We pay five dollars on each fifty-dollar bond every month, which is thirty dollars a month. I will have them paid for by the last of July. I was made corporal in December, which pays three dollars more on the month.
Granny, write me soon. I am always glad to hear from you. You certainly have stuck to us three boys and we appreciate it. I remain as ever,
Your grandson,
Dallas G. Martin.

Jolly's Cousin Dies
In Service Abroad

Corporal Ernest Neyman, the first boy from West Point, Miss., to give his life for his country, his death being reported on January 19 from France, was a cousin of A. L. Jolly, assistant postmaster of Albany. Corporal Neyman was a splendid type of young American manhood and was highly esteemed in his home town.

Jack Williams,
Noted Dare Devil

O'clock at night. The Lyons Hotel building, owing to the construction of the cornice, making it especially difficult to go "over the top," will be a test of the fly's ability.

While the Johnson building is regarded as the tallest structure in either Decatur or Albany, it could not be secured free of charge, and for this reason was passed up. The proprietor of the building fixed a price of $10 for its use. As part of the proceeds go to the tobacco fund it was thought best not to cut into this in the payment of rent.

Joe Campbell Writes
of Conditions Abroad

Says a Soldier of the U. S. A. Doesn't Need Any Money.

That the American soldier abroad
has but little need for money is the statement made by Joe M. Campbell, American field artillery, now in France, in a letter to his father here.
The letter follows:

January 8, 1918.

Dear Father:

While thinking of you I thought I would drop you a few lines to let you know that I am still living. Hope this will find you well and happy. I received the package and was pleased with it. I was going to send you a present, but payday came around too late. Don't feel sore at me for not sending it.

I am in the kitchen and getting along fine. I am drawing $44 per month. I am sending $20 home. I bought one Liberty bond. My allotment runs out this month, but I am going to renew it and make it $30 per month. That don't leave much to blow in, but I don't need any money
at all.

I wish I could have been at home for Christmas. I hope to be there by next Christmas. We are having some cold weather. It has been snowing
here for the past month.

Your son,
JOSEPH M. CAMPBELL.

You Can't Rub It Away; Rheumatism is in the Blood

Liniments Will Never Cure.
If you are afflicted with Rheumatism, why waste time with liniments, lotions and other local applications that never did cure Rheumatism, and never will?
Do not try to rub the pain away, for you will never succeed. Try the sensible plan of finding the cause of the pain, and go after that. Remove the cause, and there can be no pain. You will never be rid of Rheumatism until you cleanse your blood of the germ that causes the disease. S. S. S. has never had an equal as a blood purifier and scores of sufferers say that it has cleansed their blood of Rheumatism, and removed all trace of the disease from their system.
Get a bottle of S. S. S. at your drug store, and get on the right treatment to-day. If you want special medical advice, you can obtain it free by addressing Medical Director, 23 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

OLSHINE'S DEPARTMENT STORE announces the arrival of an Immense Stock Spring Merchandise and the next few days will be wonder days at this great establishment. We say wonder days because those who come while the stocks are fresh and complete will see a wonderful assortment of wonderful materials and styles at wonderfully moderate prices.

No Such Stock as this Was Ever Shown in North Alabama

And you will wonder when you see them how it was possible for us to buy and have delivered to us such a splendid assortment of goods suitable for every member of the family.

The explanation is easy. We have three large stores in Nashville, Chattanooga and Decatur. Our two buyers were recently in Eastern markets. They went prepared to take advantage of every opportunity offered to pick up valuable merchandise, and succeeded far beyond their expectations. One of the buyers, Mr. Harry Olshine, returned with the first shipments eager to tell his many hundreds of friends and customers all about the good things he has in store for them. New shipments are also arriving daily. At the Decatur store you will now find anything you may need for any member of the family, such as

Ladies' and Misses' Suits, Coats and Dresses, Hats, Shoes, Underwear, Hosiery, Etc. Men's Suits, Hats, Shoes, Shirts and everything for his Spring Outfit. Also everything for the Boy that he may be Fitted Out New from Head to Foot

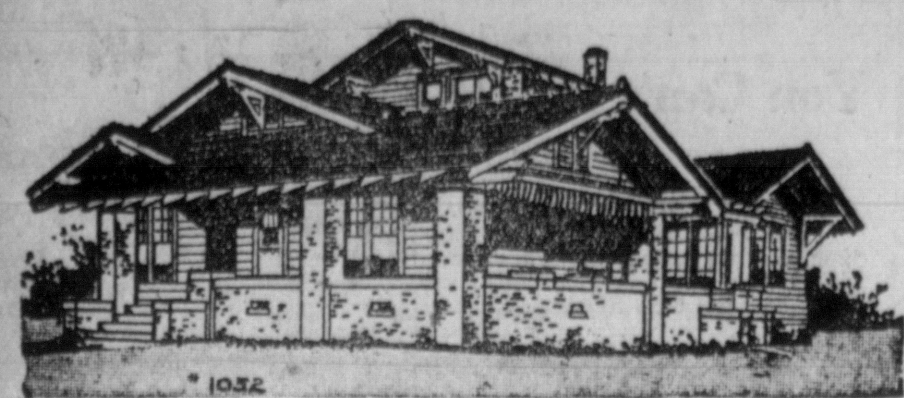

These offerings are all of the newest materials, latest styles and priced wonderfully low. We cordially invite you and your friends to call and look them over. You will not be disappointed. COME IN TODAY.

New Homes and Better Homes---But Let's Improve the Old Ones As Well

We have not yet arrived, but even though we had we could not "Stay Put"
It is and must be onward, ever onward, else, backward, sadly backward

There is no half-way ground where it is safe to tarry.

Therefore, you and I, and he, and she, must realize that Albany-Decatur has not reached the zenith, but we have plenty of room to grow and keep on growing, and that in the progress the old must keep pace with the new.

PLAN NO. 2013

This unique Swiss Chalet "Acroplane" Bungalow calls for more than passing comment. Its exterior design produces just the proper lines to make it a home that is different, and to be admired by all. The first story exterior is of red brick, the steps and both front and side porch floor is of concrete. The second story exterior is covered with shingles stained brown, all trim is gray. The roof, and wide overhang of the eaves, are covered with composition roofing.

The first floor is divided into five well-arranged rooms; the living room, with tile mantle, cove ceiling, oak floors and trim, and built-in seats and book cases; and is finished the same as living room. The bedroom connects with closet, also toilet and bath room. The dining room, has beamed ceiling, oak floors and trim, and connects with breakfast room; which is paneled in leather to a height of five feet, above is the plate shelf and the walls above shelf are papered in Dutch design. French doors lead from breakfast room to side porch. To the right of breakfast room and just back of the dining room is the kitchen, which is equipped with all modern labor-saving devices, connected with kitchen is also the hall and back screened porch, on which is installed toilet and wash stand. On second floor are two large bedrooms with closets to each, also bathroom with all modern built-in features.

WHEN you wish to furnish your new home, don't fail to call and inspect our twenty three furnished rooms on SECOND FLOOR. You may find valuable suggestions here.

For Winter Colds and Coughs

Try Steam or Hot Water Heating. Coal at $6.50 per ton is cheaper when burned in a Steam or Hot Water boiler than cough drops at 5 cents per box. Everybody knows that when the air in the room is warmed by low temperature in Steam or Water radiators the moisture is not robbed from the air, therefore its purity and life giving properties are preserved, that is why all hospitals and green houses, where preservation of human life and tender plants are maintained, use Steam or Hot Water Heat.

If you consider that your health or your family's health is worth preserving, call or write for information and estimate concerning your heating needs, to

United We Could Accomplish Much

In the development and the improvement of this community.

YOU may be doing your full share and duty towards the development of Albany-Decatur, and so may we.

BUT, united we could accomplish more in a year than either of us can accomplish individually in a decade.

YOU, as a citizen of this community, are just as much interested in the homes already built, as well as the homes to be built, as anyone else.

YOU are interested in your neighbor, your neighbor's home, and your neighbor's welfare, for he and his home do their part towards making this community.

Likewise, you are of as much interest to him.

Therefore, why not get together, and each of us do our part and our best in the way of improving and boosting for the improving of the homes already built here in Albany-Decatur as well as encourage the building of new and better homes?

Should we not be more proud of the Twin Cities? Feel more satisfied and content to call this home? IF, all the homes here were kept in good repair, modern condition, and those needing it, new roofed or newly painted?

Why not make the slogan—"Keep your home in good repair, or give us a reason why!" a by-word here in Albany-Decatur. And, if your neighbor's home need a new roof speak to him about it.

BUT—Remember not to become offended should he speak to YOU about yours.

You have a right to, and so has he, even as you, for we are doing the town and each other an injustice when we neglect needed improvements, that we could afford to make.

Everything in Hardware for Builders

It is the most important to select the best hardware for that new home or building.

That brings you here, for we make a point of carrying nothing but the best builder's hardware that adds not only to the beauty of a building but to its selling value as well.

The Sash and door Locks, Hinges, Etc., are a very small part of a building, but will repay many times for the cost and trouble of proper selection. Cheap goods are a continual source of trouble and worry.

We are prepared to name interesting prices on the complete hardware for any style of building from the humble cottage to the largest office building.

Yes sir! We also sell the best building Tools—all moderately priced.
